I gave this speech just a few days ago, I hope you will not only watch it but share it. Our son turns 3 by the Grace of God and Love and Prayers for you all tomorrow. Many of you have given financially so much to help aid cures. This is the last time we will be doing this walk for Nicky's Birthday and please pray for our trip to St Jude next week and for our son to remain cancer free and without inflammation. So many of you have given financially to help aid cures, may God Bless you for doing so and if you planned on doing it here it is one last time.

God Bless you I will be updating after the walk and possibly from Memphis to let you know how things are going down there. Storm heaven for Cures and for our little man.
